

Penobscot County
Local Emergency Planning Committee
97 Hammond Street, Bangor, ME. 04401
(207) 945-4750

Quarterly Meeting Agenda
July 21, 2022 @ 9:00AM
M&N Operating Co.
227 Lambert Rd, Brewer, ME 04412

- I. Opening remarks – Lisa Burton, LEPC Chair
- II. Member Introductions and Updates
- III. EMA Updates
 - a. LEPC Membership Application renewal
 - b. FY23 LEPC budget approved – see handouts provided.
 - c. GIS Mapping of facilities & Versant Power critical infrastructure priority restoration collaboration.
 - d. 2022 Chemical Security Summit on August 23-25 – see handout provided.
 - e. NIOSH Safety Notifications:
 - Several 3M Scott SCBA Air Pak models manufactured between November 1, 2019, and April 12, 2022
 - AirBoss Defense (ADG) FlexAir powered air-purifying respirators (PAPRs).
 - f. Vote to approve public safety lights (red) in Penobscot EMA's vehicle in accordance with Title 29-A: MOTOR VEHICLES AND TRAFFIC - §2054. Emergency and auxiliary lights; sirens; privileges – see handout provided.
- IV. M&N Operating Co.
 - a. Presentation by Clyde Coleman, M&N Operating Co.
 - b. Facility tour of M&N Operating Co.
- V. Next Meeting
 - a. October 20, 2022 @ 9:00AM, location TBD.

Under the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act (EPCRA), Local Emergency Planning Committees (LEPCs) must develop an emergency response plan, review the plan at least annually, and provide information about chemicals in the community to citizens.